went back and his sister-in-law said, "I just got word that the bodies were found."

Jim Mills told me that he has never been to DeRussey's Lane. That also on the night of September 14th he saw three letters in his wife's scarf, written on linen lawn paper such as she would buy in a drug store. The scarf was on the clothes-rack in the hall, that he thought that the letters were written on both sides of the paper, and only saw the word Honey, he could not remember the rest that was written on the letters. That on a Thursday night he also went to the Jew's store on Abeel Street to find out who had called his wife on the telephone.

This statement was made by Jim Mills on October 23, 1922. This statement was taken in the Study of the Church between 7.30 and 11.30 p.m.

It appears to me that Jim Mills is responsible for all the information given out which places the suspicion on Mrs. Hall and her relatives. I also found that when I interview Mills on this occasion, he appeared to be more evasive in his answers - That he is not the fool that he is believed to be, and that he possesses more intelligence than he is given credit for.
